

The Daily Courant.

Friday, December 21. 1705.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 22.

Rome, November 28.

THE 23d Instant, being the Festival of St. Clement, the Pope who that Day entred into the 6th Year of his Pontificate, assisted at the Chappel that was held for the Anniversary of his Election, and Mass was celebrated by Cardinal Paulucci his chief Minister of State: After which Cardinal Accajoli the Sub-Dean, made the usual Compliment to him in the Name of the sacred College. The 24th Cardinal Paulucci receiv'd Advice by an Express, that General Paulucci his Brother was dead at Forli the Place of his Nativity. Yesterday a great Congregation of Cardinals was held at the Palace, upon the present State of Affairs in Poland, which gives the Pope great Disquiet; but 'tis not known what Resolutions pass'd. The Negociation for accomodating the Differences between this Court and that of Vienna is continued: And we look upon some Advance to be made in it by the Pope's having allow'd of the Emperor's being begun to be pray'd for in the Churches of this City, though he be not Crown'd yet. The overflowing of the Po has done unspeakable Damage in the Ferrareze: and the Cardinal Legate of Ferrara has sent hither Count Crispi to solicit the Pope to bestow a good Sum of Money among those of his Subjects that have suffer'd most: His Holiness has granted them no more than 3000 Crowns, under Pretence that his Treasury is very low; but he has order'd publick Prayers to be very solemnly made for them.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 22.

Liege, Dec. 15. All the Horse of our Garrison are order'd to hold themselves in a Readyness to march; as are also 350 Men of each Battallion of Foot: And like Order is sent to the other Frontier Places; but for what Cause we are yet to learn. Cannon, Mortars, and a great Quantity of Ammunition is embarking at Maestricht for storing the Magazines of this Town of Liege. The Enemy give out that they will begin the Campaign in these Parts early, and with a greater Number of Forces than they had last Year. The Elector of Bavaria has given his Hussars to the King of France; and the Marshal de Villeroy having taken a Review of them on Thursday and Friday last at Louvain, return'd to Brussels.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 22.

Maestricht, Dec. 19. We have lately receiv'd by Water from Holland 50 Iron Cannon; 'tis said they are to be sent to Tongres and Hasselt; and that the new Works made for strengthening the Fortifications of those Places are finish'd; so that we are in no Apprehension for the Garrisons put into them at the End of the Campaign. The Enemy had resolv'd to repair the Lines that our Men forc'd and demolish'd the last Campaign, from the Mehaigne to below Diest on the Demer; but they have alter'd their Design, upon Intelligence that our Troops had Order to hold themselves ready to march to oppose them; and have now determin'd to make a Line further within the Spanish Brabant, viz. from Diest on the Demer to Waveren on the Dyle, in which they will take in the Town of Louvain, whither several of their Ingenieurs are gone to mark out that Line. The Enemy have detach'd for Spain 10 or 12 Battallions from the Netherlands. Monsieur Croonstroom is at Turnhout, where he is treating with the Enemy about an Exchange of Prisoners.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 22.

Aeth, December 15. 'Tis reported the Elector of Bavaria has desir'd the King of France to let him command in Catalonia against King Charles III; but the King has return'd him Answer, that he will be more Serviceable to him in the Netherlands, where he designs to have a greater Number of Troops than last Year. 'Tis talk'd likewise, that his said Electoral Highness had form'd a Design to surprize Hasselt, but being inform'd the Enemy keep watchful upon their Guard, he has laid it aside.

From the Leiden Gazettes, &c.

Leiden, Dec. 22. Letters from Venice advise, that the Damage done in Italy by the overflowing of the Po and other Rivers, appears every Day to be far more considerable than was at first imagin'd: In particular they tell us the Repairing the Diques broke in the Mantuan, will cost at least 40000 Pistoles; that the Houses of Mirandola are half under Water; that at Ferrara 3 Gates are kept close wall'd up, and that those who have occasion to go out of that Town, go off the Wall down by Ladders into little Boats that ply for that purpose.

They write from Basil the 12th of this Month, that the Cantons of Zurich and Berne having had a Conference at Arau, touching the Alliance with the Republick of Venice, and the Affairs of Geneva, are separated and gone Home; that they have regulated and concluded that Alliance with the Venetians; that they have fix'd the 7th of January for the Day of solemnizing it at Zurich, and of swearing to observe it, according to ancient Custom; that the Cantons of Berne are to depute 2 Members of their little Council and 2 of their greater to assist at that Ceremony, with a Retinue of 40 Persons; and that a Medal is preparing to be struck at Zurich in Memory of the solemnizing of this Treaty. The Deputies of Geneva are gone Home (say these Advices) very well pleas'd with the Success of their Negotiation, the Cantons of Zurich and Berne their Allies having promis'd them to protect powerfully their Republick, who were extremely alarm'd upon Monsieur de Valieres appearing with a Body of French Troops in the Neighbourhood of their City. The Catholick Cantons who were lately assembled at Lucerne, are separated without having taken any Resolution about renewing their Alliance with the State of Milan.

Collonel Croonstrom has sent Letters from Turnhout to the Duke of Marlborough and Monsieur d' Auverquerque at the Hague, with the Draught of an Agreement propos'd between him and the Enemy's Commissioners for an Exchange of Prisoners, a Copy of which Draught those Commissioners have sent to the French King. So that 'tis suppos'd an Exchange of Prisoners will shortly be concluded.

Deal, December 19. Last Night and this Morning we had a most violent Storm here; which forc'd several Ships from their Anchors, and some we fear are driven ashore. Wind then at S. S. E.
